For our "coloquio", we are going to organize a streaming event that will look like a small research congress.

In this event, each of you will prepare a 2-minute presentation in English with a short PowerPoint (3 slides):

- 1. Your name and field of study.
- 2. A topic you would like to research in the future.
- 3. Why this topic is important for your technical career.

The goal is not to present a finished project, but to share your interests, ideas, and questions as future professionals.

This activity will help you to:

- Practice speaking in an academic setting.
- Express your future goals in English.
- Experience what a professional congress feels like.

At the end, we will have a fictional collective streaming session where everyone will present their ideas and we will celebrate your work together.

Important Notice:

During the streaming session, you are required to present your topic with both your camera and microphone on.

In the final minutes, you will have the opportunity to ask and answer questions from your classmates.

Please ensure that your internet connection is stable to avoid any technical issues that could affect your performance in the exam.
